

Approval : 10th Senate

IIT Mandi Proposal for a New Course

Course Name	: Seminar and report
Course Number	: PH614
Credits	: 0-0-4-2
Prerequisites	: Faculty consent
Intended for	: I-Ph.D.
Distribution	: Core for I-Ph.D.
Semester	: Semester III (Odd)

Preamble: This course is aimed at developing students self-study and presentation skills which are very much important to build a successful research career.

Course outline: Each student will choose a particular topic for their seminar. Student will be continually preparing in a self-study mode in consultation with faculty members working in physics related topics. Students are also required to write a report.

Modules:

Student will be continually preparing during the semester in consultation with faculty members . At the end of the semester students have to give a seminar and a report. Faculty members who are involved in the program will evaluate based on performance of students during the period and their seminar and report.

Textbooks: As advised by the faculty member

References:As advised by the faculty member