

Workshop on
Effective Teaching and Learning
1st October 2016

The Teaching and Learning Committee (TLC)
IIT Mandi

The Teaching and Learning Committee (TLC) of IIT Mandi organized a one-day workshop on 'Effective Teaching and Learning' for faculty members on 1st October 2016.

The workshop was conducted by Prof. Ramesh Oruganti, Emeritus Professor, School of Computing and Electrical Engineering, IIT Mandi.

Though there have been earlier workshops at IIT Mandi conducted by experts from other institutions, this is the first time such a workshop has been conducted with in-house expertise.

The workshop, which was attended by 12 faculty participants, covered various aspects of teaching and learning, including what constitutes good teaching, planning to teach and teaching methods. TLC plans to hold more such workshops and other activities in the future.
