

Indian Institute of Technology Mandi

Inauguration of Multi Sports complex in IIT Mandi South Campus

On 2nd June 2017, a modern multi sports complex has been inaugurated by Prof. Ashok Mishra, former Director of IIT Bombay, in the presence of Director, Prof. Timothy A. Gonsalves, IIT Mandi, Dr. Suman Kalyan Pal, Dean Students, Dr. Rajendra Kr. Ray, Sport-Advisor. On this occasion faculties, staffs and students of IIT Mandi and CPWD Engineering staffs were present. This sports complex has two multipurpose halls, one hall is made with synthetic flooring, which is having four badminton court, one basketball court, one volleyball court. The other hall is with wooden flooring which is for multipurpose activities like yoga, Table-Tennis, aerobics, dancing etc.

This multipurpose sports complex has added a great value to campus sports infrastructure which students were longing since long. It will give a big boost to sports development in the campus.

