

Indian Institute of Technology Mandi
MANDI- 175 001 (H.P.), INDIA www.iitmandi.ac.in

Walk-in Interview for the Post of Project Associate (Research Assistant)

Project: Point of care monitoring of neurovascular interactions (Especially Inverse Neurovascular Coupling) during spreading depolarization in brain trauma using simultaneous recording of EEG and NIRS.

Principal Investigator : Dr. Shubhajit Roy Chowdhury, School of Computing and Electrical Engineering.

Funding Agency: DST (under BDTD scheme).

Interested candidates should walk-in on March 29, 2019 at 2 PM. The venue will be small meeting room in the A4 building, Kamand Campus, IIT Mandi.

Candidates are encouraged to send the confirmation of attending the interview by e-mailing their CVs to src@iitmandi.ac.in. Please mention “Application for Project Associate” on the subject line. Please bring a copy of your CV, self-attested documents supporting the qualification, research experience, etc for the interview.

Additional Details

Duration: The appointment will be made on contract for a duration of 6 months, with subsequent renewal subject to good performance.

Eligibility: Bachelor in Technology (B. Tech.)/ Bachelor in Engineering (B.E.) in Electronics & Communication Engineering with minimum of 60% marks (55% in case of SC/ST candidates). Preferable age is less than 28 years.

Desirable: Candidate must have good hardware implementation skills particularly in the development of microcontroller based circuit boards. He/she must have some experience on system-level integration of the electronic components and hands-on experience of working with bread boards and PCB designs. Some knowledge of neuroscience will be preferred.

Principle Investigator: Dr. Shubhajit Roy Chowdhury, Assistant Professor, SCEE, IIT-Mandi.

Fellowship: Rs. 25,000/- p. m.

How to Reach IIT-Mandi: http://iitmandi.ac.in/institute/campus/how_to_reach.php
