

NSS CERTIFICATE DISTRIBUTION CEREMONY

Dated: - 2nd June, 2016

An awards ceremony makes people feel that their work is valued. It shows approval and gratitude for each person's good job, and it makes people aware that good work will be rewarded. It shows others, such as the general public and other staff members, that you're aware of outstanding accomplishments. Recognition motivates others to strive for excellence and we all benefit from it.

Recognition motivates people. For instance, if a social worker receives an award for an outstanding performance in the outreach program, other social workers will strive to do better also, so that they too can be recognized. Being rewarded for doing well is one of the biggest incentives anyone can receive.

NSS unit IIT Mandi organized its first NSS certificate distribution ceremony for the batch 2013-2015 volunteers at IIT Mandi Kamand campus on dated 02nd June, 2016. Total 46 (Forty Six) B.Tech. and Post-Graduate student volunteers from IIT Mandi facilitated with NSS certificate after successful completion of voluntary service of 240 hours in Two years. The Post-Graduate students carry the full load when B.Tech. Students are not available due to examinations or semester-breaks. Volunteers who were relatively consistent and dedicated in their social service were honored in this function.

An awards ceremony or activity is a chance for celebration and reflection. People will get a break and a party, getting their minds away from everyday work, allowing them to see the bigger picture. At the same time, they will have the chance to discuss the importance of their work and the achievement of the person being awarded. Gathering and sharing experiences is a very powerful means of encouragement.

After getting appreciation certificates student volunteers share their past experiences and thanks IIT Mandi community to provide them a platform where they can devoted themselves for the social welfare works of societies. In the end of function Dr. Atul Dhar thanks the student volunteers for their loyal commitments. In the end of ceremony refreshments were served to all volunteers.
