

VISIT TO DMJ ANATHALYA, DEHAR, MANDI GUIDANCE AND DONATION OF BOOKS

“Reading is important, because if you can read, you can learn anything about everything and everything about anything.” With this enlighten thought, NSS-IIT Mandi organized an educational tour to Divya Manav Jyoti Anathalya (Orphanage), a regional orphanage in Dehar on 30, November, 2013.

NSS team visit to orphanage Dehar, Mandi, Himachal Pradesh

Meeting of NSS team with caretaker about children

View of rooms at orphanage

Volunteers were deeply touched by the resilience of the young children living over there. The children seemed to be so happy and full of life despite so very few materialistic pleasures.

NSS volunteers are interacting with children at orphanage

A view of class rooms at orphanage

A team of 5 faculties and 5 students guided those children about competitive and upcoming exams. They were encourage to read more and more books as whenever you read a good book, somewhere in the world a door opens to allow in more light. They suggested them a lot of ideas like; how to prepare for competitive examinations etc. Problems faced by the orphanage administration and children were discussed and solution were suggested.

NSS team organized guidance programme to 10 +1, 10+2 students

NSS team is guiding 10+1, 10+2 students about their career choices

NSS unit IIT Mandi donated a good collection of 182 books to enhance the educational environment of those children. Volunteers helped to keep all the books in the library in an organized way.

NSS volunteers are maintaining the records of books at orphanage

NSS team is donating books

NSS volunteers are arranging books in the library

Students are enthusiastic to read science books

This is the only route to scale new heights of cordial social relationship between humanities.